Boys & Girls Club of Mount Vernon to Host Former National Security Advisor Susan Rice for Speech on Youth Development

On Monday, November 16th, Former United States Ambassador to the United Nations and National Security Advisor Susan Rice will speak about the unique challenges and solutions for today's youth, and share thoughts on her experience as a diplomat and Advisor to President Barack Obama during a Virtual Event hosted by The Boys & Girls Club of Mount Vernon.

A Virtual Conversation With Ambassador Susan Rice will run from 4:30pm 5:30pm. During this one hour program, Ambassador Rice will also talk about her memoir "Tough Love: My Story of The Things Worth Fighting For" that recalls pivotal moments from her dynamic career on the front lines of U.S. diplomacy.

Signed copies of her book will be available for purchase during registration for this complimentary virtual event. For more information and to register visit <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/a-conversation-with-ambassador-susan-rice-tickets-129033555839>

About The Boys & Girls Club of Mount Vernon

The Boys & Girls Club of Mount Vernon offers after school programs for over 1,400 youth in the Mount Vernon community, to help them learn and grow in a safe, fun, educational environment. Every day, their dedicated, highly trained staff and volunteers serve youth members with a wide variety of engaging, interactive activities and programs, to help them improve their self- esteem, develop positive values, and achieve their highest potential in academic success. The mission of the Boys & Girls Club is to develop today's youth into tomorrow's leaders.
